

Reflection for Today

In today's Gospel, our Lord demonstrates his great compassion for us. Having created us to be both material and spiritual in nature, he knows intimately the needs of both our bodies and souls.

We hear that a great crowd was following him. He fed their souls by giving them hope. As the most perfect parent, however, he also cared for their bodies, feeding them with miraculous, overflowing generosity. "You open your hand to feed us, Lord: you satisfy all our needs."

He proves that his love for us is not just a theory, but also something tangible. What did the people in the crowd do to receive Jesus' generosity? They followed him closely and gave him all they had: five loaves and two fishes. No doubt this humble offering seemed woefully inadequate, but they brought it nonetheless. Jesus transformed it beyond all expectations.

Lord Jesus Christ, when I look into my heart for the kind of humility and generosity it takes to be a peacemaker, I recognize that I am not really a person of peace. I find it difficult to yield when disagreements arise in my family or at work, and I need your grace to do the right things in times of conflict. Fill my heart with your peace. Amen.

In your prayers remember:
