

Reflection for Today

When we come to worship, we usually make the sign of the cross. The words that accompany this holy action, ‘In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,’ remind us that there are three persons in God. The feast of the Holy Trinity is a celebration of the mystery of God as a family of love. We have not been left in the dark in our struggle to attempt to understand God. From what Jesus said and did while on earth, we can grasp little pieces of the innermost being of the mystery of God. Throughout his life, Jesus was forever talking about God as his Father, and he referred to himself as God’s only Son. He explained also that his mission was to do the will of the Father. Jesus introduces us to the Spirit whom he talks about as being a real person, completely different from himself and God the Father. The Spirit’s job is to inspire people to continue in the church the work begun by Jesus and draw everyone into the love of God the Father.

Loving Savior, I believe that true greatness comes from you and that you alone can stir in me the desire to “do something great with my life.” I want to be “good and acceptable” in God’s eyes, but I also need to be transformed, to learn how to discern what is good and acceptable. Help me to respond to this call. Amen.

In your prayers remember:

- * Our sick and hospitalized
- * Our elderly parishioners.
- * All those at the manor, lodge and homebound.
- * Our deceased family & friends.

Thought for this Week

St. Francis Xavier’s favorite prayer was: “Most Holy Trinity, who live in me, I praise You, I worship You, I adore You and I love You.” Let the Son lead us to the Father through the Spirit, to live with the Triune God forever and ever. Amen.” (Fr. Antony Kadavil)
