

REFLECTION FOR THE DAY

The event recalled in today's reading from the Gospel of Luke matches closely the story of the loaves and fishes from John. Jesus, after having fed thousands, announces himself as the true bread sent from heaven. He promises that whoever eats his flesh and drinks his blood will have eternal life, and be raised on the last day.

Christ, in the Eucharist, continues to feed multitudes with much more left over in abundance. The Eucharist has been offered by the Church from its beginning, and will be offered by her until the end of time because Jesus said, Do this in remembrance of me. The Eucharist will continue to feed us also because Jesus wishes to remain with us and in us, helping us to seek him, see him and serve him by how we love, honor, serve and forgive one another.

In proclaiming the Year of the Eucharist in his 2003 encyclical Ecclesia de Eucharistia, Saint John Paul wrote: "The most holy Eucharist contains the Church's entire spiritual wealth: Christ Himself." He encouraged every Catholic to "rekindle this Eucharistic 'amazement.'" (par 6).

On this feast of Corpus Christi, established by Pope Urban IV in the year 1264, we celebrate the miracle of the Eucharist. When we share in the Eucharist, we share in Jesus' miraculous love for us and for all sinners.

Catholics worldwide are urged to pray for Priests, June 24th, on the World Day of Prayer for Priests. The day was begun by Saint John Paul II in 2002 with the objective of having all Catholic faithful join in prayer for the sanctification of Priests. The World Day of Prayer for Priests coincides with the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

July 1 is celebrated as Canada's birthday. Canadians should seek to be witnesses to Christ in Canada and the world, and to continue working to influence those in government to act from Christian principles and attitudes. Christians, realizing they do not have a lasting home here, should pray and work for justice and peace in Canada and throughout the world, so that all God's people may share in the goods of this earth. God's kingdom will come only when all people are ready to let Christ's teaching guide and rule their lives and actions.
