

REFLECTION FOR THE DAY

“Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28)

How true are Jesus’ words, which invite those who are tired and weary to come to Him to find rest! His arms outstretched on the cross show that no one is excluded from his love and his mercy, not even the greatest sinner: no one! We are all included in his love and in his mercy. The most immediate expression with which we feel welcomed and included in him is that of forgiveness. We all need to be forgiven by God. And we all need to encounter brothers and sisters who help us to go to Jesus, to open ourselves to the gift he has given us on the cross. Let us not hinder each other! Let us not exclude anyone! Rather, with humility and simplicity let us become instruments of the Father’s inclusive mercy. The Holy Mother Church prolongs in the world the great embrace of Christ who died and rose. Let us engage in this movement of including others, to be witnesses of the mercy with which God has accepted and welcomed each one of us.
